

City of Miami Beach
Office of Mayor David Dermer

MAYOR DERMER'S "RESCUERS IN THE RING"
CHARITY BOXING EVENT SET TO RETURN FOR ROUND 4

(Miami Beach, FL) - November 15, 2005 - Miami Beach Mayor David Dermer, together with local business partner South Florida Boxing, is set to host the fourth annual "Rescuers in the Ring" charity boxing event on Saturday, December 3rd at 8 PM at the Miami Beach Convention Center. Miami Beach police officers, firefighters, lifeguards and local U.S. Coast Guard members will be teaming up and squaring off in the ring to raise money for the Miami Beach P.A.L. and the South Florida Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society.

Round four of "Rescuers in the Ring", which will be emceed by NBC6 sports reporter Guy Rawlings, promises to be an exciting, action-packed night of boxing to benefit two very worthy causes. "I commend our local public safety officers for dedicating so much of their time and effort to training and preparing for this great event", said Dermer. "Their hard work in the ring will go a long way to help Miami Beach youth, as well as those in the broader South Florida community who are living with MS."

Tickets for the "Rescuers in the Ring" charity boxing event are $30 each, with all proceeds going to the Miami Beach P.A.L. and the NMSS. To purchase tickets, simply call 305-607-2BOX or visit www.SouthFloridaBoxing.com. "Walk-up" tickets can also be purchased using cash or credit card on the night of the event, but quantities may be limited. To find out more about the South Florida Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, please visit www.nmssfhs.org ; to find out more about the Miami Beach P.A.L., please visit www.beachpal.org.

###

